

Miriam Kulick

For over 25 years, Miriam Kulick, originally from New York City, has been a working actress in theatre, film, and television, in the New York, Atlanta, and South Florida markets. Her primary training was at the prestigious Terry Schreiber Studio in NYC, as well as current on-camera classes with Tim Phillips, classes at Drama Inc. and the Alliance Theatre in Atlanta.

TV/Film highlights: feature film, Night School, with Kevin Hart, Superstition, on SyFy directed by Mario Van Peebles, and HBO'S Ballers, with Dwayne Johnson. Miriam produced, wrote, and starred in, The Rock, a short indie film.

Theatre highlights: Playwright and actress; Open Hearts solo show, directed by Obie- award winner, Gretchen Cryer, Off-Broadway Theatre Row, Cherry Lane, (NYC), DC Capital, and Ft. Lauderdale Fringe Festivals. Playwright and actress; Almost Tamed: Tales of Mayhem, Motion, and Malarky, (FL). Actress; Three Angels Dancing on a Needle, (Best Actress New Times Miami,) Brick Theater (NYC). Hunka, (readings,) at Nuyorican Poets Cafe, Primary Stages, (NYC). The Rock, at Pigs Do Fly, (FL). The upcoming In Her Shoes, where she will read an excerpt from her pending creative non-fiction literary publication; The Time I Wore That Dress, in Atlanta.

Miriam has been a teacher for over 16 years, at The Terry Schreiber Studio Summer Intensives, and The Acting School of South Florida. She continues to offer her own workshops to actors and Communication Workshops to non-actors. Miriam is a proud member of AEA, SAG-AFTRA, a member of The League of Professional Theatre Women, (NYC), and the Dramatists Guild.